

COMPASS ENERGY

MODERN SLAVERY POLICY STATEMENT

Compass Energy are fully committed to preventing all modern slavery in our operations and in those organisations with whom we associate or have dealings, particularly our suppliers and customers. Modern slavery has many forms and includes but is not limited to slavery, forced or compulsory labour, child labour, human trafficking, and/or human rights abuses.

In order to achieve our objective Rockley and Compass will:

COMPLY with all relevant laws and regulations; specifically, the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

MAINTAIN and trade only within our own Ethical standards

ASSESS associated risks

ENSURE all employees are aware and understand our Policy, perform their jobs consistent with it and report any suspicious activities

RESPOND quickly and decisively to any apparent breaches

CO-OPERATE with enforcing authorities

REVIEW our Policy on a regular basis

Signed.....

Stuart Morgan

Managing Director

Date: 10th July 2023

Next review date: W/C 1st May 2024